

COVER LETTER

Prospective authors who send a manuscript and have not been published before by ALLRO must submit to ALLRO either their CV containing a list of publications or a cover letter. These documents are important for the elaboration of our list of contributors. The CV can be in any format.

The cover letter can be a letter of introduction using a free, personal style or it can use a standard template. It can be emailed to : analeromana@uoradea.ro . It can be sent in the language of the manuscript: either in English or in Romanian, French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese. Authors must use it to introduce themselves, their activity and the subject of their manuscripts. The following aspects must be included:

- ✓ Presentation of the author(s), affiliation, institutional address, email address;
- ✓ Title of the manuscript;
- ✓ Short description of the subject;
- ✓ The topic(s) from the list of topics covered by ALLRO- see “THE TOPICS COVERED BY OUR JOURNAL” on <http://analeromana.uoradea.ro/> ;
- ✓ The reason(s) why the manuscript suits the profile of ALLRO;
- ✓ The statement that the submitted manuscript is the author’s own original work

Sample text of cover letter:

Your name, institution, address (personal and/or institutional), e-mail address

Dear Editor-in-Chief,

I am..... I work / My areas of research..... (My doctoral thesis was/is, I am pursuing a doctoral thesis on)

I hereby confirm that the manuscript entitled..... is my own original work.

The article focuses on/ aims the It can be included in the category “The dynamics and trends of Romanian literature” from your list of topics. It suits the profile of your journal because.....

I confirm that this manuscript is not submitted elsewhere.

Sincerely yours,

Date... , name or e-signature

If the manuscript is accepted, authors must know that:

- ✓ Any further published research on the exact topic based on this article requires a citation of ANALELE UNIVERSITĂȚII DIN ORADEA FASCICULA LIMBA ȘI LITERATURA ROMÂNĂ;
- ✓ The article should not be sent for concurrent submission to another journal. However, the article can be integrated in an ampler and further research (in a book, in a doctoral thesis, but not in another journal) with obligatory reference to the article published in ALLRO. Prospective authors must inform the reviews editors from the start if they do not fully comply with this condition. If the publication elsewhere is pending, the manuscript is not accepted. It shall not be sent to the reviewers.
- ✓ After review, the manuscript is in one of the four categories: fully-accepted, minor revisions, drastic revisions, rejected. A rejected manuscript cannot be saved for publication unless it cumulates the accept of all three executive editors involved in this stage: the editor-in-chief, the associate editor-in-chief and the editorial secretary. If one of them votes against, the manuscript will not be published. (see also the section <http://analeromana.uoradea.ro/peerreview.pdf>). Neither the section editors nor the reviews editors can replace any of the three: the editor-in-chief, the associate editor-in-chief and the editorial secretary, for this decision.
- ✓ Copyright transfer regarding the conditions and terms of publication. Approval for publication means automatically copyright transfer to ALLRO, in case of all accepted manuscripts. Obviously, this transfer does not refer in any way to the ownership of the intellectual content of the article. Authors are the only owners of their content. Suppose an author objects to being published online. Authors should know that, by copyright transfer, the decision about the form of publication belongs to ALLRO, not to them.
- ✓ In case of ALLRO, copyright transfer refers solely to the conditions and terms of publication.
